

Nov. 1, 2020 All Saints Sunday White Communion Sunday

Title: Spiritual Mentor

Scripture: Matt. 4:23-25, Ephesians 4:11-13

Topic Sentence: Balance, unity and living in the power of God's grace is what equipping the body of Christ is all about. All parts are essential. All are equal. They move as one in the full measure of the grace given to each one. It is God's master plan for every church, every disciple, every spiritual mentor.

November 8, 2020 23rd Sunday after Pentecost Green Nov. 11: Veterans Day

Title: Jigsaw Puzzle

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 12:6-10

Topic Sentence: Our church is very much like this jigsaw puzzle. Each one has unique talents, abilities, and spiritual gifts. Every gift is vital to the big picture, to the proper functioning of body of Christ—there are no spares or extras. If one person tries to do something that someone else is better suited to do, we end up with two people out of place. We all need to discover our spiritual gift and serve in the most fruitful way possible. Everybody is somebody because we're in this together.

Scripture: Luke 1:26-38 The Message

Title: What a mess!

Theme sentence: On this 2nd Sunday of Advent let us ponder God's unthinkable peace for His people. A Peace that is active, overflowing, sometimes even reckless. The good news of Advent is that God is not only near, God is Among us in life storms ready to give us His rich peace that passes understanding,

December 13, 2020 3rd Sunday of Advent

Scripture: Isaiah 61:1-4

Title: Let it Shine

Theme Sentence: Let it Shine. Joy is a present reality helps us see those around us. The challenge for this season is: slow down and use our time and resources wisely, listen for God's voice, hear the cry of the needy, resist the rush, and focus on the light of Christ that comes again into the world that makes a difference.
